

Daughters are the modal caregiver, ahead of spouses

All 4,481 helper records in HRS 2022 Section G, before the out-of-pocket-payment reclassification applied in script 00. Daughters (1,100) outnumber sons (577) roughly two to one, a gendered pattern the hierarchical compensatory model does not itself predict. Formal providers of all kinds together account for a small minority of records.