

Network structure carries information the scalar covariates do not

HRS 2022, n = 2,142 respondents with a reconstructable care network. Panel B suppresses network sizes with fewer than 25 respondents. Panel C shows simple Pearson correlations, not partial effects; they establish that the features move with the outcome, while script 07 tests whether they add anything once the existing covariates are already in the model.